

Horse Trek Adventure

Horses, song, the Sierras, what more could you want for your summer!

The Camp Lassen Horse Trek offers a unique opportunity to learn about horse riding and experience the beauty of the Sierras.

The Camp Lassen Horse Trek will provide ten horses and all your meals during the trek. No prior horsemanship experience is necessary

Each rider will be responsible for the care of his horse and equipment. Upon your arrival Monday morning we will have a morning horsemanship instruction session. Immediately after lunch (1 p.m.) we will leave camp and ride to our first campsite. Day 2 will see us riding through a wilderness area to our second campsite. Day 3 will be spent at our second campsite. The riders may rest on this day or day rides, hiking and fishing will be available. Day 4 will take us to our highest elevation at Eagle Rock on the Pacific Crest Trail where you can see Mount Shasta, Mount Lassen, Lake Almanor, and the Sacramento Valley. Day 5 will get us back to Camp Lassen at approximately 2 p.m. Friday afternoon. You are welcome to spend the night at Camp Lassen Friday night

Our staff will do its best to provide entertainment in the evenings. If Scouts are working on their Horsemanship Merit Badge, this is the time for staff lecture, review of merit badge requirements and questions. We will have at least one evening of music and singing Scouts who wish to earn the Horsemanship Merit Badge may do so. Our staff will give lectures during the trek and some study time by the Scouts will be necessary. Testing on the Horsemanship Merit badge will be done when we return to Scout Camp at the end of the trek. We would be happy to help your Scouts finish up partial horsemanship merit badges they may have started at home.

Rider qualifications: Each Scout must be at least 13 years of age We have a rider weight limit of 200 lb. If you have a rider that is over our 200 lb. weight limit, please let us know -- arrangements can be made
